This lecture has been supported by sponsorship from:

Monday 2nd December 2019

MGS Early Career Award - Final

Tom Farr, WSP

The use of pressuremeter testing in the foundation assessment of the Bletchley Flyover

Fiona Hughes, Arup

Seismic behaviour of structures with basements in liquefiable soil

Mauro Iannazzone, Balfour Beatty

Wind Turbines: The Issue of Soil Plugging During Pile Installation

Natalie Wride - Arup

The performance of cohesive slab track subgrade subjected to long-term cyclic loading

Each of our four finalists will be giving a 10-minute presentation followed by up to 5 minutes of questions. The standard of entries is very high so it's going to be a tough job for our judging panel of past MGS chairs to determine a winner! Please come along and bring your colleagues to support our finalists and learn more about the geotechnical challenges our younger members have been working on.
